

Participant Consent Form

Launched in June 2015, BC Partners in Workforce Innovation (BC WiN) is a three-year pilot project that provides recruitment services for employers to help make it easier for them to find qualified job seekers with disabilities.

The following organizations are involved in this pilot:

- The BC Ministry of Social Development and Social Innovation is funding this research project.
- The BC Centre for Employment Excellence (CfEE), a division of the Social Research and Demonstration Corporation (SRDC), a not-for-profit research organization, is the research team managing and evaluating the project.
- MacLeod Silver HR Business Partners is the Recruitment Specialist team providing recruitment services for this project.

In order to participate in BC WiN, please complete the attached Participant Consent Form and provide it to the Recruitment Specialist prior to your interview.

The project team will use the information you provide to connect you to employment with our employer partners and to evaluate the pilot.

What is the study about?

BC Partners in Workforce Innovation (BC WiN) is a pilot project that is being evaluated to learn:

- How this approach helps employers meet their employment needs; and
- How this approach helps job seekers with disabilities connect to employment opportunities.

What will I be asked to do?

We would like your permission to use the information you share with the Recruitment Specialist. We are also interested in your employment experiences during the period of the pilot.

- You will be asked to complete one short survey approximately 6 months from today's date.
- You may be invited to participate in an interview or group discussion at a later date.

A small honorarium will be provided to complete the survey and participate in any interviews/discussions.

Is my privacy protected?

Your personal information will be kept confidential and will be seen only by the project team directly involved in the pilot. Your name, address, or any other information will not be shared with anyone without your permission, unless required by law. Your name will not appear in any publications without your consent. Your information will be destroyed within 2 years after the project has been completed.

You have the right to ask to see any information collected about you for the project. For any questions or concerns about the confidentiality of your personal data, please contact Susanna Gurr, CfEE Managing Director and SRDC Chief Privacy Officer, at sgurr@cfeebc.org.

Participation is voluntary

Your participation in this study is entirely voluntary and you may choose to withdraw at any time without penalty. This means that the researchers will stop collecting information about you. You can withdraw by contacting Shawn de Raaf, Research Coordinator, at 604-601-4077 or email sderaaf@cfeebc.org.
